

BIKE PERSONAL

BIKE PERSONAL

The new icon of style and innovation designed by Antonio Citterio.
Train at home with a virtual trainer on demand.

The perfect fit

Every detail is carefully designed and crafted, from the soft-touch handlebar with inbuilt hand sensors to the padded saddle for outstanding riding comfort. All controls, including resistance setup, are close at hand.

A virtual trainer on demand

Choose your class, start pedalling and achieve the results you aim at.

Enjoy the ride

The roundness and smoothness of the stroke hit you the instant you start pedalling. And thanks to the advanced biomechanics and reduced distance between the pedals, it feels just like being on two wheels.

THERE'S NOTHING LIKE IT

The slender frame breathes in the elegant geometry. The preciousness of the polished surface shines with light. Live the beauty of movement in the most exclusive location on earth. Your home.
